

Raycast Depth

This component can be used to calculate the physics depth between two points. This is used by the SgtFlare component.

Layers

This allows you to set the layers the raycast will test.

Ease

This allows you to set the transition style between transparent and opaque.

Max Thickness

This allows you to set the thickness required for the raycast to be considered opaque.